Liability

LIABILITY

Cadle Craft accepts no responsibility for:

- Any loss, damage or injury to client, their guests or any of their belongings.
- Items delivered by the client for the Wedding are the client's responsibility and should be collected by 08h00 the next morning, unless other arrangements have been made.
- Inclement weather affecting outdoor Wedding Ceremonies or tented area. It is the responsibility of the client to ensure a back-up venue has been arranged.

The Wedding Coordinator reserve the right to move the Ceremony into the chapel in case of unfavorable weather conditions, should no back-up venue be arranged by the client.

- Inability to perform due to power outages, strikes, or natural disasters. The client, his/her guests or employees will be liable for any damage or injury caused to Cadle Craft and/or its employees. If any incident related to the Wedding results in legal involvement of a third party, the client will exclude Cadle Craft and its employees from all responsibility or blame.

Damages

DAMAGETOPROPERTY

The Client shall be responsible for all liabilities, losses, demands, damages, costs and expenses, including (without limitation) property damages and/or personal injuries suffered or incurred by Cadle Craft or any employee or staff member of Cadle Craft or other guest or invitee of Cadle Craft and arising as a direct or indirect result of the attendance at the wedding or the use of services and facilities of Cadle Craft by the Client or its employees or any invitee of or outside contractor hired or engaged by the Client.

A refundable Damages/Breakages deposit of R1500 is payable prior to the Wedding date. All suppliers used will have to adhere to our guidelines, if any damages are caused due to non-compliance, the bridal couple will be held responsible.

The guidelines will be provided prior to setup. If you do not use one of Cadle Craft's preferred caterers, your caterer will be asked to complete a liability form for the use of our kitchen area. *Note that if breakages on the selected décor package exceed the deposit, the couple will be invoiced afterwards.
